

8th Annual UW-La Crosse Conference on Teaching and Learning

We've Moved to Fall!

Tuesday August 29th 2006

8:30 to 12 in Valhalla

The conference will be a workshop on Documenting Student Learning. You will get to develop a tool to measure and document student learning in one of your own classes.

Why should you care about Documenting Student Learning?

- It can help improve your teaching and student learning.
- It can be used in promotion and tenure portfolios.
- It can be part of a publication on teaching materials you develop.
